Sales Trend

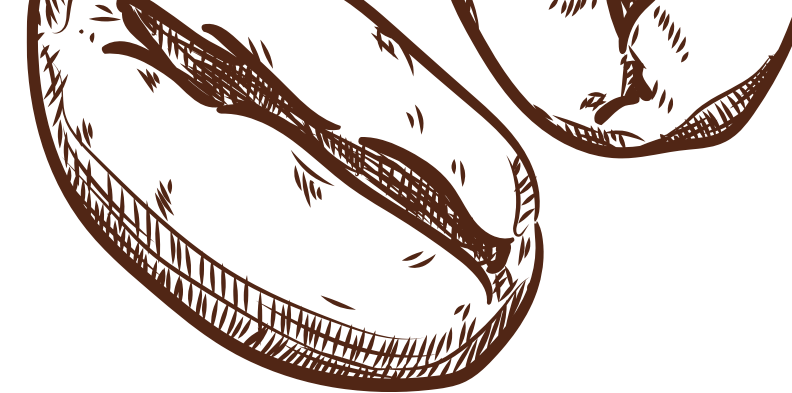

KEY INSIGHTS

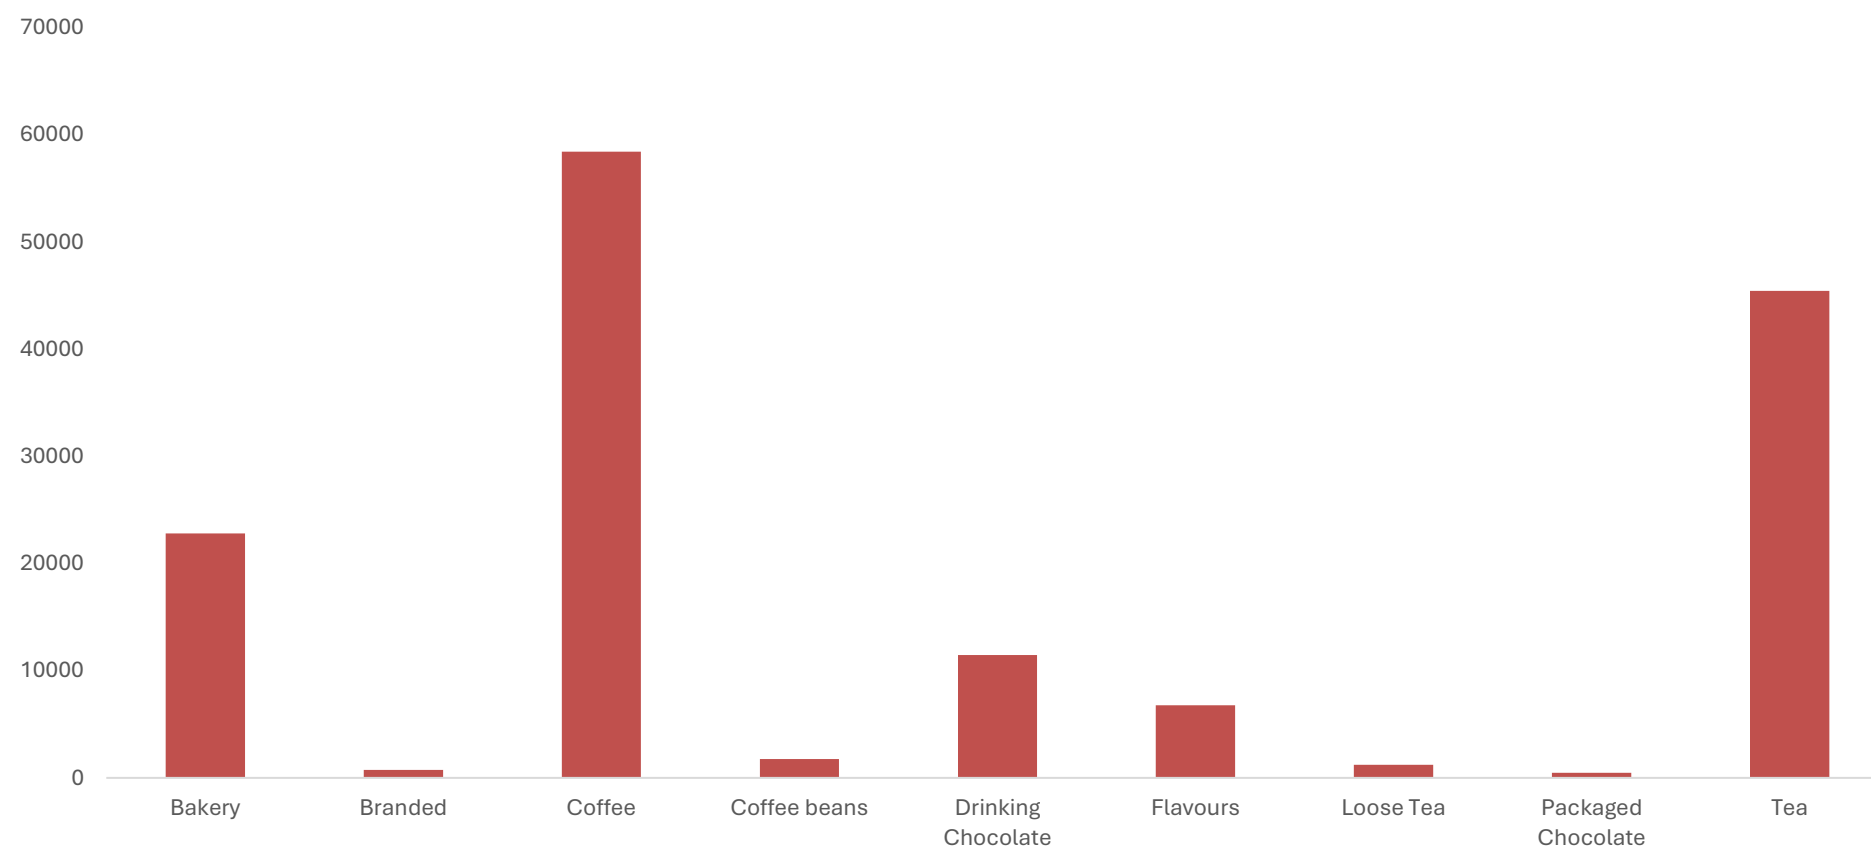

Monthly revenue has steadily increased, peaking in June. The majority of sales occur in the morning and also on weekends, highlighting key periods for customer engagement.

Product performance

Total Revenue per product category

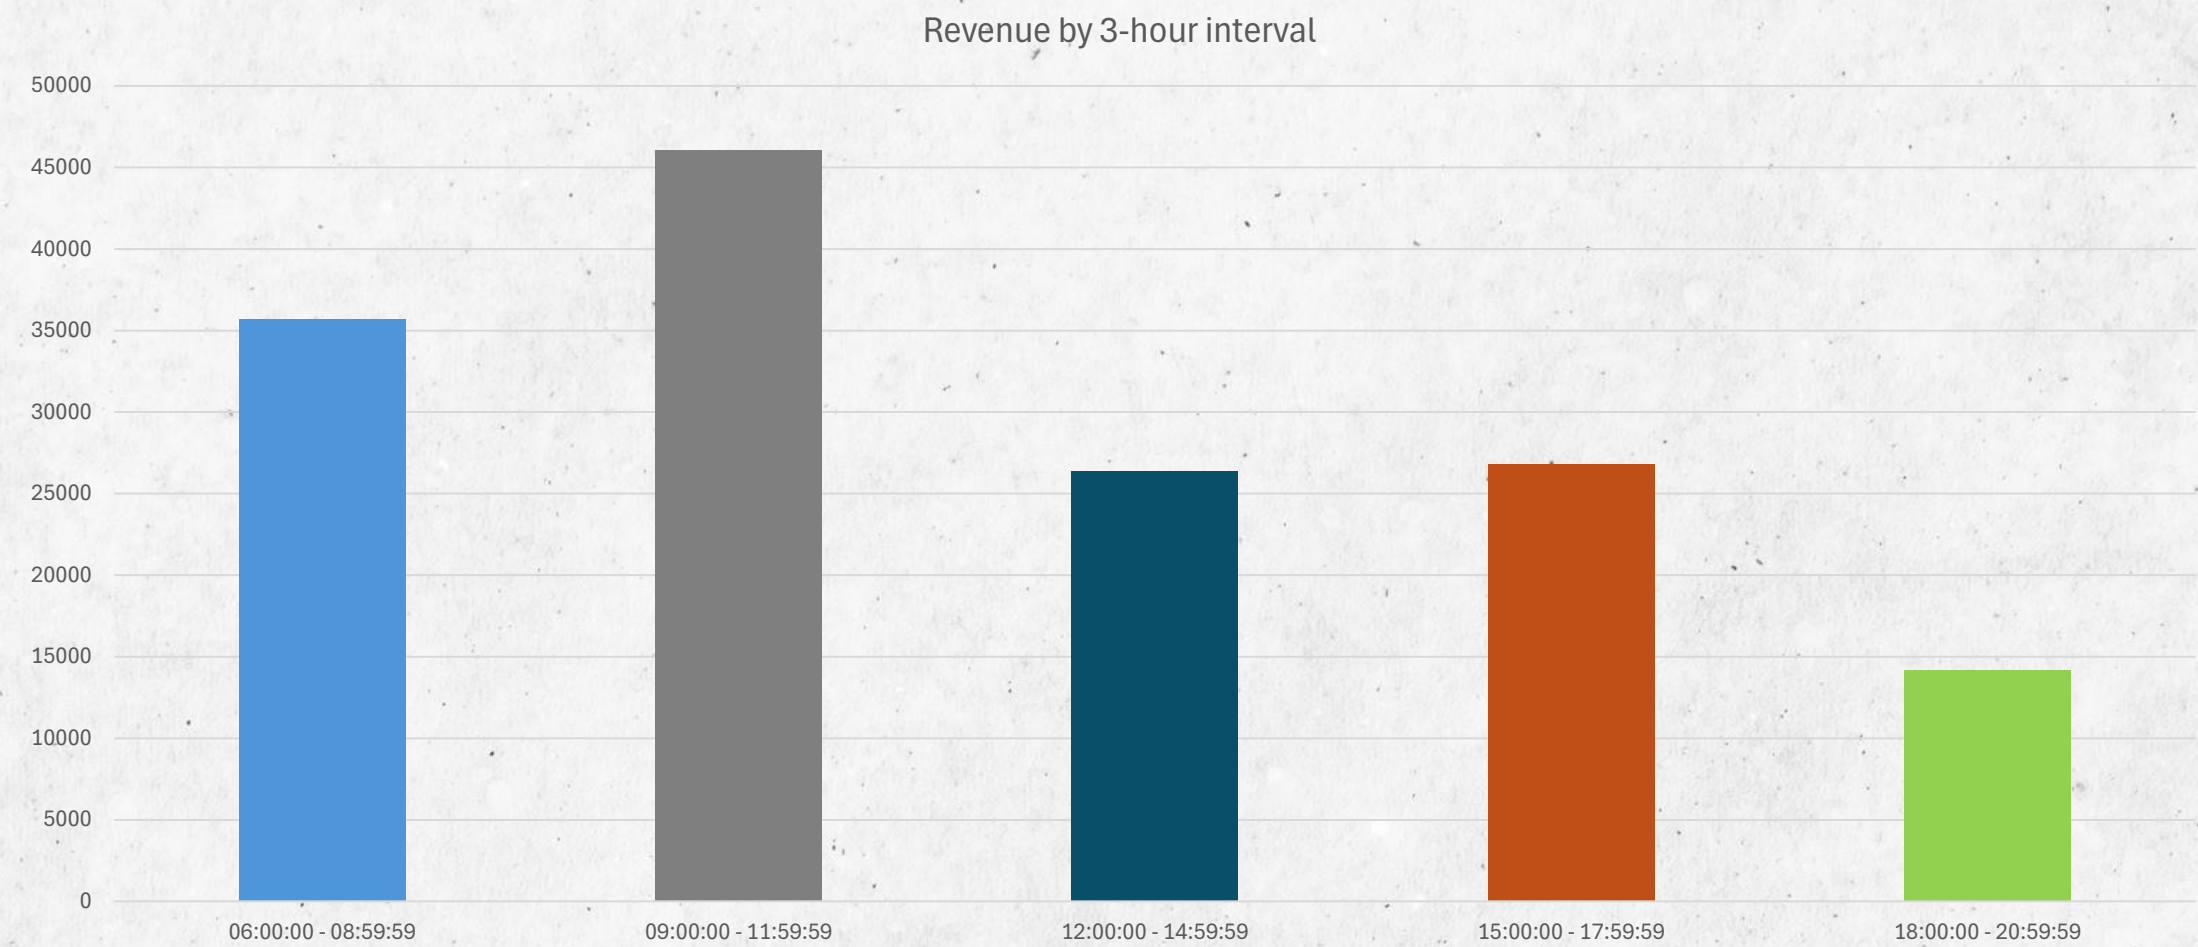

KEY FINDINGS

Coffee is the top revenue-generating product category, followed by Tea, making them the main drivers of sales for Bright Coffee Shop. However, other categories like baked goods and drinking chocolate contribute moderately, while items such as loose tea and packaged chocolate show the lowest revenue

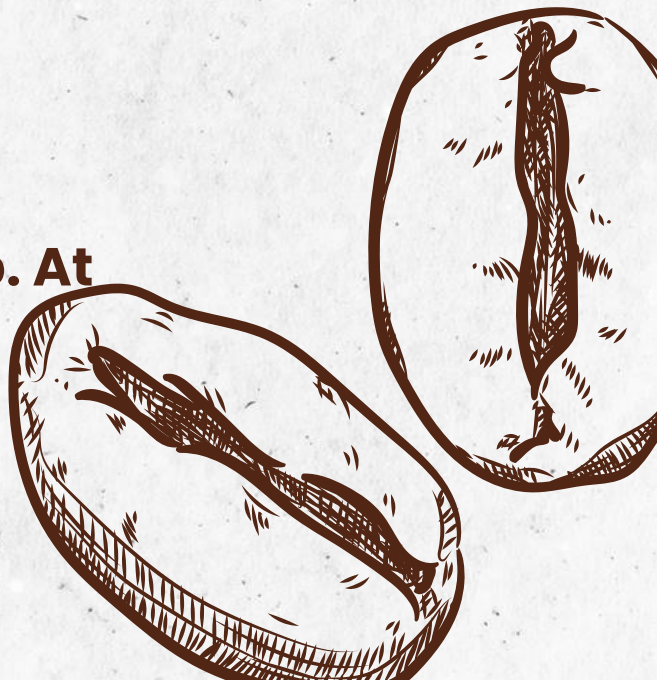

Time distribution

KEY FINDINGS

Revenue peaks during mid-morning to early afternoon hours, making this the busiest period for Bright Coffee Shop. At the same time, late evening has the lowest revenue.

Recommendations

- ☐ Peak Time Focus: Increase staff and run promos during 09:00-15:00 and weekends
- ☐ Double Down on Winners: Promote Coffee and Tea as signature products
- ☐ Boost Low Performers: Create bundles/ combos with Loose Tea and Packaged Chocolate
- ☐ Track Growth: Continue monitoring monthly trends to adjust inventory and marketing
